

Gold Coast Public Library Online Communication Policy

As part of its service to the community, the Gold Coast Public Library utilizes web based communication tools to:

- disperse library news and information
- promote library resources and programs
- provide a place for open communication and discussion

The communication tools include, but are not limited to:

- The Library Website
- An e-mail newsletter via Constant Contact
- A Facebook Page
- A Twitter Profile

In order to facilitate community conversation, the Library tries to provide opportunities for interaction via these tools, including the ability for patrons to comment on the Library's postings.

Comment Guidelines

We welcome the posting of comments to help further the discussion by sharing ideas and opinions. Anyone may comment on any post as long as the comment etiquette listed below is followed:

- No inappropriate language or racist slurs will be tolerated.
- Respect everyone's right to his or her own opinion.
- Please keep comments on topic.
- Do not post or link indecent content.
- For your safety, personal information should not be listed.
- Must be 14 years of age or older to post.
- Please no solicitations or spam.

Gold Coast Public Library reserves the right to edit comments or delete comments in their entirety.

Adopted: April 17, 2013

Please Note: This policy replaces the previous Gold Coast Public Library Blog Policy

Adopted: June 13, 2007

Amended: October 10, 2007

Rescinded: April 17, 2013